The CTO Foundation provides opportunities for Caribbean nationals to pursue studies in the areas of tourism, hospitality and language training. The Foundation selects individuals who demonstrate high levels of achievement and leadership both within and outside the classroom, and who express a strong interest in making a positive contribution to Caribbean tourism.

The proceeds will also benefit the CTO Relief Fund which provides assistance to member countries that have been impacted by disasters such as Hurricanes Irma and Maria.

The Caribbean Tourism Organization is the Region's tourism development agency comprising membership of twenty-eight governments and a range of private sector entities. The Organization provides specialized support and technical assistance in the areas of sustainable tourism development, research, marketing, communication, advocacy, event planning, human resource development and information technology.
